

Finding Science in Surprising Places: Gender and the Geography of Scientific Knowledge Introduction to 'Beyond the Academy: Histories of Gender and Knowledge' (pages 73–80) Christine von Oertzen, Maria Rentetzi and Elizabeth S. Watkins

Collecting Knowledge for the Family: Recipes, Gender and Practical Knowledge in the Early Modern English Household (pages 81–103) Elaine Leong

Woman, Know Thyself: Producing and Using Phrenological Knowledge in 19th-Century America (pages 104–130) Carla Bittel

An 'Elusive' Phenomenon: Feminism, Sexology and the Female Sex Drive in Germany at the Turn of the 20th Century (pages 131–152) Kirsten Leng

Innovative Niche Scientists: Women's Role in Reframing North American Museums, 1880–1930 (pages 153–174) Sally Gregory Kohlstedt

Science in the Cradle: Millicent Shinn and Her Home-Based Network of Baby Observers, 1890–1910 (pages 175–195) Christine von Oertzen

Amateurs by Choice: Women and the Pursuit of Independent Scholarship in 20th Century Historical Writing (pages 196–219) Gianna Pomata